ORDER:

In the letter read above, the Director General of Police, Andhra Pradesh, Hyderabad has informed that the population of Ananthapuramu Town is 3, 50,202, and at present three (03) Police Stations are functioning. However due to increase in crime rate and traffic, the existing police stations are unable to cope up with the work load in their respective jurisdictions and therefore proposed for creation of new 4th Town Police Station by transferring some areas from Ananthapuramu II Town and Ananthapuramu Rural Police stations areas for effective administration. He has also proposed that the existing strength of Civil Police in Ananthapuramu District, will be distributed in the newly created 4th Town Police Station and no additional man power or funds are required.

2. Government, after careful consideration of the proposal, hereby accord sanction for establishment of new 4th Town Police Station in Ananthapuramu Town for maintenance of Law & Order and Prevention of Crime etc., with a strength of (01) Circle Inspector, (02) Sub-Inspectors of Police, (03) Assistant Sub-Inspectors of Police, (06) Head Constables and (43) Police Constables, subject to condition, that the existing civil police strength in Ananthapuramu District shall be distributed in the newly created 4th Town Police station.

3. Accordingly, the following notification shall be published in the next issue of the Andhra Pradesh Gazette:
